Schedule

Time	Event
09:00–09:30	Registration
09:30–09:40	Introduction
09:40–10:10	Plenary Speaker: Alex Bond (Natural History Museum, Tring) Is there hope? Lessons from 20 years of understanding the impacts of plastic pollution on wildlife
10:10–11:10	Contributed Talks - Dori Grijseels (Max Planck Institute for Neurobiology of Behavior) - Greg Slabaugh (Queen Mary University of London) - Charles Eldrid (University of Manchester)
11:10–11:40	Coffee Break
11:40–12:20	Contributed Talks - Catherine Tonry (University of Greenwich) - Sara Wren Sorkhabi (University of Cambridge)
12:20–12:40	Flash Poster Presentations
12:40–14:00	Lunch
14:00–14:05	Welcome to the Afternoon Session
14:05–15:05	Contributed Talks - Hope Duncan (University of Leeds) - Shaun Keegan (University of Strathclyde) - Kate Mowbray (Northeastern University London)
15:05–15:35	Coffee Break
15:35–16:15	Contributed Talks - Victor Drummond (Loughborough University London) - Jacqueline Taylor (Missouri State University)
16:20–16:50	Plenary Speaker: Priya Silverstein (University of Coimbra) Replication, Open Research, and Queering Science
16:50–17:00	Closing Remarks
17:10–18:30	Poster Session
19:00 onwards	Networking Social

Logistics

- Registration will take place in the People's Palace Foyer in the People's Palace on the Mile End campus of Queen Mary University of London.

  Venue: https://w3w.co/slope.themes.pill

- All talks will be held in the Skeel Lecture Theatre in the People's Palace.
- The poster session will be held in the Octagon. If you are giving a poster, please head over to the Octagon during lunch to set it up.
- We have a quiet room booked: Room LG01 in the People's Palace. Please be considerate and mindful of others when using this space.
- Gender neutral toilets can be found just outside Skeel, through the door to your left after the first flight of stairs down.

  For more toilets, walk from the People's Palace foyer towards the door to the outside. An accessible toilet is on your right, and gendered toilets on the corridor down a few stairs to your left.
- The networking social is at the Joiners Heart. You can catch the 277 or 425 bus there from Grove Road where it crosses Mile End Road (stop G, just north of Mile End tube).